Aeronautical Information Management Regulation

Head of Aeronautical Information Management Regulation	Steven Hill
Telephone	0207 453 6570
Fax	0207 453 6565
e-mail	steven.hill@caa.co.uk

Responsibilities

The formulation and implementation of CAA Policy on Aeronautical Information Management (AIM) Services in the United Kingdom; Responsible for the regulatory oversight of State AIM Service providers in accordance with the CAA Statutory Obligations under the Civil Aviation Act, ICAO Annex 4 and 15, and the Air Navigation Directions to the CAA; Authorship of CAP 779 'Regulation of Aeronautical Information Management Services'; Regulating AIM provider compliance in accordance with European legislation, in particular the Single European Sky Common Requirements and Interoperability Regulations; Providing UK input to ICAO policy on AIM, standards and recommended practices; CAA focal point on the provision of UK AIM services.

Aeronautical Information Management Regulation Staff
Geoff Parks 0207 453 6571 geoff.parks@caa.co.uk	Aeronautical Information Management Specialist - Editor of CAP 232, 'Aerodrome Survey Requirements'; Provide guidance on aerodrome survey requirements to aerodrome operators and surveyors; Contributes to the development and implementation of UK AIM policy and the regulatory oversight of AIM service providers; Contributes to UK input on the development of ICAO Policy and European legislation.
Rick Davidson 0207 453 6573 rick.davidson@caa.co.uk	Aeronautical Information Management Specialist - Editor of CAP 779, 'Regulation of Aeronautical Information Management Services'. Provide guidance on provision of Aeronautical Maps and Charts. Contributes to the development and implementation of UK AIM policy and the regulatory oversight of AIM service providers; Contributes to UK input on the development of ICAO Policy and European legislation.