2 August 2012
FOIA reference: F0001369

Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent application of dated 19 July 2012, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

> "We should be grateful if you would let us have copies of all site licences issued to TAG Farnborough Airport Ltd.
>
> We have been able to obtain a copy of the current licence dated 22 August 2011 from your website".

Our response:

In assessing your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), we are pleased to be able to provide the information below.

We can confirm that there have been two aerodrome licences issued by the Civil Aviation Authority.

The licence for TAG Farnborough Airport Limited was initially issued on 1 January 2003. We have enclosed a copy of this licence as requested.

This licence was changed and re-issued on 22 August 2011. Your letter stated that you had already obtained a copy of this licence from the CAA website. We can confirm that the licence dated 22 August 2011 is the current licence for TAG Farnborough Airport Limited.

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
