

Dear AME

As you are aware the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) will come into force on the 25th May 2018.

UK CAA Medical have uploaded some training slides onto the AME E-Learning platform to explain your responsibilities under this regulation. Please make sure that you take the time to review these slides and share this information with anyone within your AME practice.

The presentation takes approximately 15 minutes.

Within the presentation, reference is made to templates that may be useful to you, these are attached to this email.

If you have any questions relating to GDPR, please do not hesitate to contact us at amesupport@caa.co.uk, with the title of the email: GDPR

Many thanks and kind regards
