Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent application of 22 October 2010, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

“Do you have copies of any contracts, or information relating to agreements, between BAA and Heathrow Airport Licensed Taxis Drivers Society (HALTS)?”

Our response:

In assessing your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, we are able to provide the information below.

The CAA can confirm that it does not hold a copy of the contract between Heathrow Airport Licensed Taxis (HALT) or Heathrow Airport Licensed Taxis Society (HALTS) and BAA.

With regard to information relating to these contracts the only information held has been extracted and copied below.

“Heathrow Airport Limited (HAL) and Heathrow Airport Licensed Taxis Society (“HALTS”) entered into a new agreement for the provision of Taxi Support Services. The previous agreement with Heathrow Airport Licensed Taxis Limited (“HALT”) had expired in July 2008. The new agreement was executed on 1 December 2009 to run for a five year period.

The terms of the agreement prohibit HALTS from publicising or advertising the terms of the agreement. Providing a copy to third parties could render that term ineffective if the agreement itself were then distributed to persons not bound by that restriction”.
