FOIA reference: F0001155

Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent application of 10 May 2011, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

"I request the following information in writing.

The number of Pilots who have lost their license due to Diabetes in the UK, due to Insulin dependent Type 1, Insulin controlled Type 2 or any Type 2 not controlled by Drugs regulated by CAA, such as sulphanureas etc".

Our response:

In assessing your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, we are pleased to be able to provide the information below.

Data from UK CAA held aviation medical records was collated on 16/05/2011 for the 10 year period 2001 to 2010.

Number of UK CAA Class 1 licence holders who were assessed as long term unfit with a primary cause of diabetes mellitus 2001-2010

Type 1	Insulin treated	6
Type 2	Insulin treated	12
Type 2	Rosiglitazone	2
Type 2	Rosiglitazone/Metformin	2
Type 2	Glicazide/Metformin/Pioglitazone	1
Type 2	Sulphonylureas	2

This data represents all certificate holders who were assessed as long term unfit during this period. It does not include certificate holders or applicants who were assessed as temporarily unfit whilst being stabilised on medication or for any other reason, referred for assessment, did not revalidate or renew their certificates or did not submit reports for assessment.

It may not include applicants or certificate holders who were assessed as long term unfit for a complication of diabetes as this may have been classified under the affected system.

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
