Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent application of 27 January 2012, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

“Please could you supply the official reason for the delay/ cancellation of the following flights from Manchester Airport.

*ref`s Emirates EK018 25-08-11 Monday 13.30pm Dubai
Emirates EK020 25-08-11 Monday 16.00pm Dubai*

Manchester Airport Authority directed me to your goodselves, Emirates have mentioned a differing variety of reasons. Please may I have the official reasons I presume you will have registered/recorded”.

Our response:

In assessing your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, we are unable to provide the information requested as the CAA does not hold details of the reasons for delayed or cancelled flights.

However, the CAA’s Regulatory Policy Group (RPG) may be able to assist you further if you have a complaint about an airline. You can contact RPG, using the details below. RPG can offer advice on individual complaints against airlines or airports and, if appropriate, will try to mediate on behalf of the passenger.

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
