Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent application of 17 July 2012, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

“Can you please provide me with a copy of the PART66.B.310 Conversion report for approved maintenance organisations authorisations for UK.145.00764 (Mann Aviation Group)”.

Our response:

In assessing your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), we are unable to provide the information requested as it is not held by the CAA.

It should be explained that 66.B.310 had two functions.

- Member States that had a licensing system.
- Member States that did not hold a licensing system.

For those Authorities that had a licensing system the conversion report referred to the licensing system of the member state. In the case of the UK our conversion report refers to converting our BCAR/JAR 66 licence to Part 66.

For those member states that did not have a licensing system, such as France, the conversion report(s) referred to the specific schemes each maintenance organisation had developed to qualify certifying staff.

In the UK no company schemes were approved as an alternative to holding a licence and therefore no report exists for Mann Aviation or any other UK maintenance organisation.

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
