14 May 2013
FOIA reference: F0001516

Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent application of 16 April 2013, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

"I would like to obtain copies of Airworthiness Approval Note No. 10971, relating to a Cessna model 182N aircraft, and Airworthiness Approval Note No. 10384, relating to a Cessna model 182M aircraft.

In addition, and in the event the CAA is in possession of the same, please provide me with copies of the following reports:

Report No. S-182M-33 - Model 182M Structures Substantiation Summary

Report No. S-182N-33 - Model 182N Structures Substantiation Summary".

Our response:

In assessing your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), we are pleased to be able to enclose the two Airworthiness Approval Notes (AAN's) requested. We are unable to provide copies of the requested Structures Substantiation Summary's as these are not held by the CAA.

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
