

7 June 2013
FOIA reference: F0001545

Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent application of 20 May 2013, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

“Further to my Fol request reference F0001508, which noted five complaints regarding breaches of the CAA guidelines, I would like to ask:

- What guidelines were initially thought to be breached in these cases?
- What size were these unmanned aircraft?”

Our response:

In assessing your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), we are able to provide the information below.

- The requirements alleged to have been breached were articles 138, 166 and 167 of the Air Navigation Order 2009 (ANO), all of which can be found using the link provided.
- All of the unmanned aircraft in question were under 20kgs.

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

Should you wish to make further Freedom of Information requests, please use the e-form at <http://www.caa.co.uk/foi>.

Yours sincerely

Rick Chatfield
Information Rights and Enquiries Officer

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
