

24 June 2013
FOIA reference: F0001558

Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent application of 12 June 2013, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

"I would like to have details of any bird strikes by Monarch aircraft in Europe reported in the MOR database on Sunday, 16th October, 2011. If possible also the flight number and departure/arrival airports".

Our response:

In assessing your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), we are able to provide the information below.

Incident reports are provided to the CAA under the terms of the Mandatory Occurrence Reporting (MOR) scheme, as described under Article 226 of the Air Navigation Order 2009 (ANO). Each report made is reviewed and, where appropriate, further investigation carried out and action taken.

A bird strike which has resulted in damage to the aircraft or loss or malfunction of any essential service is considered such a report.

We have therefore carried out a search of the CAA MOR database for a bird strike on the 16th October 2011 by Monarch Airlines and are not in receipt of a relevant report.

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
