ATOL Certificate

This confirms that your money is protected by the ATOL scheme and that you can get home if your travel company collapses.

This certificate sets out how the ATOL scheme will protect the people named on it for the parts of their trip listed below.

By issuing this ATOL Certificate, under Regulation 17 of the Civil Aviation (Air Travel Organisers' Licensing) Regulations 2012, [name of ATOL Certificate Issuer] confirms that the trip to which it applies is sold in line with the ATOL held by the organiser named above.

The ATOL scheme is run by the Civil Aviation Authority and paid for by the Air Travel Trust. To see what that is and what you can expect, together with full information on its terms and conditions go to www.atol.org.uk.

As well as the protection of the ATOL scheme, you have protection under the Package Travel Regulations. For more information see www.direct.gov.uk in the Travel and Transport section.

ATOL Certificate

This confirms that your money is protected by the ATOL scheme and that you can get home if your travel company collapses.

This certificate sets out how the ATOL scheme will protect the people named on it for the parts of their trip listed below.

Who is protected? [Passenger Names] Number of passengers: [xxxx]

What is protected and who is providing the protection?

Parts of the trip	Details	Your provider & booking reference	Price
Flight or flight-inclusive package	[Departure and destination airports; dates of travel & name of carrier]
Accommodation	[Accommodation name and resort]
Car hire	[Pick up point]
Other	[Details]
Total ATOL protected cost

Who is protecting your trip? [name and ATOL number of flight-plus arranger]

Your protection

You are protected from when you were given this certificate to the end of your trip. If the provider of one of the parts of your trip listed above stops trading, in most circumstances, [name of flight-plus arranger] must provide you with an alternative (at no extra cost) or offer you a full refund of the total ATOL-protected cost. See guidance on your rights at www.atol.org.uk. Please contact [name of flight-plus arranger] on [flight-plus arranger's phone number & email].

If [name of flight-plus arranger] stops trading and you are overseas, your flight arrangements should not be affected. However, you should check the instructions at www.atol.org.uk. Or, you can call (+44) 20 7453 6350. The ATOL website will also provide advice on what you must do if you have not yet left for your holiday.

If [name of flight-plus arranger] stops trading, depending on the terms of the ATOL scheme (available at www.atol.org.uk), the passengers named above will either:

- 1 be able to take and complete their trip, and return to the UK; or if that is not possible
- 2 receive a refund for the total amount paid to [name of flight-plus arranger].

By issuing this ATOL certificate, under Regulation 17 of the Civil Aviation (Air Travel Organisers' Licensing) Regulations 2012, [name of ATOL Certificate Issuer] confirms that the parts of the trip listed above are sold in line with the ATOL held by [the name of flight-plus arranger] named above.

The ATOL scheme is run by the Civil Aviation Authority and paid for by the Air Travel Trust. To see what that is and what you can expect, together with full information on its terms and conditions, go to www.atol.org.uk.
