

Info Alert ERG 2007/12

Information available from the UK Civil Aviation Authority web site

Published by the Economic Regulation Group

News from ERG

30 March 2007

- Today, the CAA referred Heathrow and Gatwick airports to the Competition Commission as part of its review of the airports' price controls. The references were accompanied by a document setting out the CAA's current recommendations on the price controls. To read the CAA's recommendations please click here, main document, executive summary, supporting paper on utility costs, supporting paper on cost of capital. To read the presentation for the analysts briefing, please click here.