Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent request of 29 January 2014, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

“Please could you provide all documentation relating to Powerline Network Adapters (PLT/PLA/PLN) and their potential to cause radio interference to aviation and related operations, covering the period June 1 2011 to date.

Please also include any pilot interference reports to radiocommunications which may be attributed to PLT”.

Our response:

In assessing your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), the CAA does not hold any relevant information from the period June 1 2011 to date.

In relation to the second part of your request, incident reports are provided to the CAA under the terms of the Mandatory Occurrence Reporting (MOR) scheme, as described under Article 226 of the Air Navigation Order 2009 (ANO). We have searched the UK CAA database for all occurrences concerning interference to radio communications, and we have not received any reports which have been attributed to PLT.
