25 February 2014
FOIA reference: F0001821

Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent request dated 9 February 2014, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

“I would like to know the type of license, Full ATOL or Small Business (SBA), held by each of the failures since the inception of the SBA.

I would also like to know the value and number of passengers of each failure”.

Our response:

In assessing your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), we are pleased to be able to provide the information below.

The information you have requested has been published on the CAA’s website. The specific information can be found in Appendix two of each of the Air Travel Trust (ATT) Report and Accounts documents. We have provided a link to this information below.

http://www.caa.co.uk/default.aspx?catid=1163

The following should be noted:

• Businesses authorised for 500 seats or fewer are SBAs.

• SBAs were introduced in October 2003.

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

Should you wish to make further Freedom of Information requests, please use the e-form at http://www.caa.co.uk/foi.

Yours sincerely

Rick Chatfield
Information Rights and Enquiries Officer
CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
