

4 June 2014
FOIA reference: F0001929

Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent request of 8 May 2014, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

- “A list of every County Court judgment since 2000 adverse to the CAA (including the court, parties, number, outcome and, where available, an electronic copy of the judgment itself). If there have been no such judgments, please provide the same information regarding all which were favourable to the CAA.
- A copy of all County Court judgments you hold relating to the volcanic ash cloud incident of 2010”.

Our response:

In assessing your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), there have been no County Court judgements involving the CAA in the time period you have specified, and the CAA therefore does not hold any information relating to your request.

If your question concerns court cases in relation to compensation claims under Regulation (EC) 261/2004, any such cases are between the passenger and the airline concerned, and do not involve the CAA.

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

The CAA has a formal internal review process for dealing with appeals or complaints in connection with Freedom of Information requests. The key steps in this process are set in the attachment.

Should you remain dissatisfied with the outcome you have a right under Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act to appeal against the decision by contacting the Information Commissioner at:-

Information Commissioner's Office
FOI/EIR Complaints Resolution
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire

Should you wish to make further Freedom of Information requests, please use the e-form at <http://www.caa.co.uk/foi>.

Yours sincerely

Rick Chatfield
Information Rights and Enquiries Officer

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
