Dear

Thank you for your request of 13 May 2025, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA). For reference your original enquiry was as follows:

Please disclose

- (a) the Data-Protection Impact Assessment(s) conducted in relation to the proposed Direct Remote ID requirements announced on 8 May 2025;
- (b) any technical specification or draft standard describing the data fields to be broadcast, update rate, range and encryption status; and
- (c) records of any consultation with the ICO under UK GDPR Article 36(4).

Your request has been considered in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). I can confirm that the CAA holds information within scope of the above request; if I may I shall address each of your points in turn:

(a) the Data-Protection Impact Assessment(s) conducted in relation to the proposed Direct Remote ID requirements announced on 8 May 2025;

Following a review of held information it has been determined that the CAA, at this stage of the project, holds no information within scope of this element of your request.

(b) any technical specification or draft standard describing the data fields to be broadcast, update rate, range and encryption status.

The data fields to be broadcast have been set out in law (requirements in the annex of 2019/945);

Delegated regulation - 2019/945 - EN - EUR-Lex

The technical standards for RID are as follows:

prEN 4709-002
ASTM F3586-22

(c) records of any consultation with the ICO under UK GDPR Article 36(4).

Following a review of held information it has been determined that the CAA holds no information within scope of this element of your request. For this element of your enquiry may I suggest, if you have not already done so, that you contact the Department for Transport (DfT) as their records may better reflect your area of study. As a separate and unique organisation I am unsure as to what information, if any, they would hold or be in a position to be able to release to you.

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

FOI.Requests@caa.co.uk

The CAA has a formal internal review process for dealing with appeals or complaints in connection with Freedom of Information requests. The key steps in this process are set out below. A request for an internal review should be submitted within 40 working days of the date of this letter.

Should you remain dissatisfied with the outcome you have a right under Section 50 of the FOIA to appeal against the decision by contacting the Information Commissioner at:-

Information Commissioner's Office
FOI/EIR Complaints Resolution
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
SK9 5AF

At the CAA we respect agile working so, while it suits me to send this now, I do not expect a response or action outside of your own working hours.

Please consider our environment. Think before printing.

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;

- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
