Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your request of 30 April 2025, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA). For reference your original enquiry was as follows:

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, I am formally requesting the following information:

- 1. A list of all government-authorised or government-monitored programs or operations that involve atmospheric aerosol spraying, stratospheric aerosol injection (SAI), solar radiation management (SRM), or any other form of climate engineering or weather modification within UK airspace from January 2015 to present.*
- 2. Copies of any risk assessments, environmental impact assessments, or public health risk assessments conducted in relation to such activities.*
- 3. A list of all private contractors, airlines, or military units participating in any such programs within UK airspace.*
- 4. Details of any international agreements or collaborations under which geoengineering activities are taking place in UK skies, including involvement from external nations, corporations, or research institutions.*
- 5. Confirmation of any legal basis under which such activities are being conducted — including whether any public consultation, Parliamentary debate, or public consent has been obtained or is required.*

Your request has been considered in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). I can confirm that following a review of held information it has been reasonably determined that the CAA holds no information within scope of the above request.

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

FOI.Requests@caa.co.uk

The CAA has a formal internal review process for dealing with appeals or complaints in connection with Freedom of Information requests. The key steps in this process are set out below. A request for an internal review should be submitted within 40 working days of the date of this letter.

Should you remain dissatisfied with the outcome you have a right under Section 50 of the FOIA to appeal against the decision by contacting the Information Commissioner at:-

Information Commissioner's Office
FOI/EIR Complaints Resolution
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow

At the CAA we respect agile working so, while it suits me to send this now, I do not expect a response or action outside of your own working hours.

Please consider our environment. Think before printing.

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;

- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
