Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your request of 13 September 2024, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA). For reference your original enquiry was as follows:

For 2024: april, may, june, july, august

Can you provide the number of complaints by month split out by airline and airport?

Can you also split the data by category of complaint, for example, categories could be lost luggage, complaint against staff etc (whatever categories you have)

Your request has been considered in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). I can confirm that the CAA holds information within scope of the above request; please find attached the information being released to you.

Please note that all complaints require an airline, a departure airport and an arrival airport to be submitted to the UK CAA; therefore, an individual complaint is not necessarily attributed directly to the associated airline/airport.

The information released relates to cases received from January 2022 to date (regardless of outcome). Therefore, some of these cases may not have been investigated.

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

FOI.Requests@caa.co.uk

The CAA has a formal internal review process for dealing with appeals or complaints in connection with Freedom of Information requests. The key steps in this process are set out below. A request for an internal review should be submitted within 40 working days of the date of this letter.

Should you remain dissatisfied with the outcome you have a right under Section 50 of the FOIA to appeal against the decision by contacting the Information Commissioner at:-
