Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent request of 23 May 2015 for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

Missed flights London stansted airport

Please can you inform me how many missed flights there were from this airport for the whole of 2014.

Our response:

Having considered your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), we do not hold the information requested. Although the CAA collects and publishes some airport statistics, this does not include information on the number of passengers that have missed flights. This information would probably only be held by the airlines themselves.

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

The CAA has a formal internal review process for dealing with appeals or complaints in connection with Freedom of Information requests. The key steps in this process are set in the attachment.

Should you remain dissatisfied with the outcome you have a right under Section 50 of the FOIA to appeal against the decision by contacting the Information Commissioner at:-

Information Commissioner's Office
FOI/EIR Complaints Resolution
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
SK9 5AF
www.ico.gov.uk/complaints.aspx

If you wish to request further information from the CAA, please use the form on the CAA website at <http://www.caa.co.uk/application.aspx?catid=286&pagetype=65&appid=24>.

Yours sincerely
