Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your request dated 26 September 2020, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

A list of the number of piston-driven aircraft registered in the UK fleet classified by model and manufacturer.

Our response:

Having considered your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), we are able to provide the information in the attachment.

The UK Register of Civil Aircraft ("the Register") currently holds details of over 19,000 aircraft, and on an annual basis there are changes of registered information to approximately 35% of the total. Therefore, there may have been changes to the Register since completion of the report.

Whilst reasonable care is taken in compiling the report, the CAA does not warrant the data in it to be free of error or omission or that changes to the Register will not have been made since completion of the compilation. Accordingly, any use that you make of the report is at your own risk and does not obviate the need to make any necessary enquiries or searches. Except where you are a consumer, in which case your statutory rights are not affected, the CAA does not accept any liability for financial loss that you incur by relying on the report. Please note that the format of the report may change in the future.

Please note that the information contained in this report is believed to be correct as at the date of compilation.

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

[REDACTED] @caa.co.uk

The CAA has a formal internal review process for dealing with appeals or complaints in connection with Freedom of Information requests. The key steps in this process are set out in the attachment. A request for an internal review should be submitted within 40 working days of the date of this letter.

Should you remain dissatisfied with the outcome you have a right under Section 50 of the FOIA to appeal against the decision by contacting the Information Commissioner at:-

Information Commissioner's Office
FOI/EIR Complaints Resolution

If you wish to request further information from the CAA, please use the form on the CAA website at <http://publicapps.caa.co.uk/modalapplication.aspx?appid=24>.

Yours sincerely
