

CAA Successful Prosecutions

1 April 2023 to 31 March 2024

Defendant

Roderick BROWN

Brief Description

Roderick Brown was an Aviation Security Certificated Instructor. He was certificated to deliver mandatory recurrent cargo operative training in accordance with the National Aviation Security Programme. He was paid to train and certify hauliers working for a cargo regulated agent. The training is obligatory and required to ensure that those transporting cargo from one place to another met aviation security standards. Mr Brown made and used false training records and training certificates. He had not delivered the required training to the people whose names appeared on the records and certificates.

Mr Brown pleaded guilty to one offence of forgery and three offences of using forged documents.
