Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your request of 19 April 2020, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request and our response:

We have considered your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

Please note we have interpreted your requests as the requirements for the initial issue of each licence as of today's date.

- How does an individual in 2020 obtain a Flight Navigators License to allow him to operate as part of a Flight Crew within CAA/EASA registered fixed wing and rotary aircraft?

The CAA do not issue Flight Navigators Licences.

- How does an individual in 2020 obtain a Flight Engineers License to allow him to operate as part of a Flight Crew within CAA/EASA registered fixed wing and rotary aircraft?

The requirements for the initial issue of a Flight Engineers Licence can be found in CAP 804, Part I, Part J.

- How does an individual in 2020 obtain a Load Master/Crewman's License to allow him to operate as part of a Flight Crew within CAA/EASA registered fixed wing and rotary aircraft?

The CAA do not issue Load Master/ Crewman's Licences.

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

If you wish to request further information from the CAA, please use the form on the CAA website at <http://publicapps.caa.co.uk/modalapplication.aspx?appid=24>.

Yours sincerely

Information Rights Officer

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
