Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your request of 11 January 2024, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA). For reference your original enquiry was as follows:

Can you advise if these aircraft are certified to fly from a commercial airport? I believe the aircraft can be identified as follows - L-159E ALCAs: G-DKNA, DKNB, DKNC, DKND, DKNE, DKNF, DKNG, DKNH

Your request has been considered in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). I can confirm that the CAA holds information within scope of the above enquiry; if I may I shall address each of your points in turn:

The above-mentioned aircraft are able to operate from the commercial airport at Teesside which is a licensed Aerodrome.

These aircraft are also able to operate from other licensed aerodromes in the UK. These L-159 aircraft are based and operate at Teesside. If you have a complaint about aircraft noise you should, in the first instance, direct it to the airport where the aircraft operates from.

For further information on noise complaints and the CAA's role please see the below CAA webpages.

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
