UK Civil Aviation Authority

APPLICATION FOR THE ISSUE OF AN EASA PERMIT TO FLY

This form and the required fee must be returned to: Civil Aviation Authority, Ground Floor East, Aviation House, Gatwick Airport South, West Sussex RH6 0YR Fax: +44 (0) 1293 573860 e-mail: apply@caa.co.uk

Note: For design related Permit to Fly requests, EASA approved flight conditions must also be submitted.

Alroraft Nationality and Identification Marks: Alroraft Manufacturer/type: Serial Number: Purpose of flight: Description of the flight(s): Expected target date(s) for the flight(s): Duration: To: Note: If a series of flights are to be carried out, please provide datalis separately. Alroraft configuration as relevant for the Permit to fly: a) The above aircraft for which a Permit to Fly is requested is defined in (add reference to aircraft design definition or, if simple, define on the form): b) The aircraft is in the following situation in relation to its maintenance schedule (descibe status): Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual personts) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorised on or my decide to carry out authority floregotions leading to the	PERSONAL DETAILS
Aircraft Nationality and Identification Marks: Aircraft Nationality and Identification Marks: Aircraft Manufacturer/type: Serial Number: Purpose of flight: Description of the flight(s): Expected target date(s) for the flight(s): Duration: To: Note: If a series of flights are to be carried out, please provide details separately. Aircraft configuration as relevant for the Permit to fly: a) The above aircraft for which a Permit to Fly is requested is defined in (add reference to aircraft design definition or, if simple, define on the form): b) The aircraft is in the following situation in relation to its maintenance schedule (descibe status): Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application.): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAX will revelve the information with a view to issuing an authorised one my decide to carry out authority for yout durinty in the view to information with a view to issuing an authorised one my decide to carry out authority action to the submitted with this authorised, the CAX will revelve the information with a view to issuing an authorised on or my decide to carry out authority for the view of the minuted with the information with a view to issuing an authorised on or my decide to carry out authority flight to the view of	Applicant name and contact details:
Aircraft Nationality and Identification Marks: Aircraft Manufacturer/type: Serial Number: Purpose of flight: Expected target date(s) for the flight(s): Expected target date(s) for the flight(s): Duration: To: Note: If a series of flights are to be carried out, please provide details separately. Aircraft configuration as relevant for the Permit to fly: a) The above aircraft for which a Permit to Fly is requested is defined in (add reference to aircraft design definition or, if simple, define on the form): b) The aircraft is in the following situation in relation to its maintenance schedule (descibe status): Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorised on emay decide to carry out authoris properties leading to the Aircraft Nationality and Identification Marks: Aircraft Manufacturer/type: Serial Number: Purpose of flight: Description of the flight(s): Expected target date(s) for the flight(s): Duration: To: Note: If a series of flights are to be carried out, please provide details separately. Aircraft configuration as relevant for the Permit to fly: a) The above aircraft for which a Permit to Fly is requested is defined in (add reference to aircraft design definition or, if simple, define on the form): (b) The aircraft is in the following situation in relation to its maintenance schedule (descibe status): Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorised on may decide to carry out authoris properties design to the design of the facing to the design of the facing to the size of may decide to carry out authoris properties design to the design of the deciding to the Aircraft Nationality and Identification Marks: Aircraft Manufacturer/type: Serial Number: Purpose of flight: Description of the flight(s): Expected target date(s) for the flight(s): Duration: From: To: Note: If a series of flights are to be carried out, please provide details separately. Aircraft configuration as relevant for the Permit to fly: a) The above aircraft for which a Permit to Fly is requested is defined in (add reference to aircraft design definition or, if simple, define on the form): b) The aircraft is in the following situation in relation to its maintenance schedule (descibe status): Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuring an authorised to or my decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the Aircraft Manufacturer/type: Serial Number: Purpose of flight: Description of the flight(s): Expected target date(s) for the flight(s): Duration: To: Note: If a series of flights are to be carried out, please provide details separately. Aircraft configuration as relevant for the Permit to fly: a) The above aircraft for which a Permit to Fly is requested is defined in (add reference to aircraft design definition or, if simple, define on the form): b) The aircraft is in the following situation in relation to its maintenance schedule (descibe status): Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorised or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the	AIRC	RAFT AND FLIGHT DETAILS
Aircraft Manufacturer/type: Serial Number: Purpose of flight: Description of the flight(s): Expected target date(s) for the flight(s): Duration: To: Note: If a series of flights are to be carried out, please provide details separately. Aircraft configuration as relevant for the Permit to fly: a) The above aircraft for which a Permit to Fly is requested is defined in (add reference to aircraft design definition or, if simple, define on the form): b) The aircraft is in the following situation in relation to its maintenance schedule (descibe status): Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorised or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the	Aircr	raft Nationality and Identification Marks: Description of the flight(s): Expected target date(s) for the flight(s): Duration: From: To: Note: If a series of flights are to be carried out, please provide details separately. Aircraft configuration as relevant for the Permit to fly: a) The above aircraft for which a Permit to Fly is requested is defined in (add reference to aircraft design definition or, if simple, define on the form): b) The aircraft is in the following situation in relation to its maintenance schedule (descibe status): Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorisation or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the Description of the flight(s): Expected target date(s) for the flight(s): Duration: To: Note: If a series of flights are to be carried out, please provide details separately. Aircraft configuration as relevant for the Permit to fly: a) The above aircraft for which a Permit to Fly is requested is defined in (add reference to aircraft design definition or, if simple, define on the form):	Purp	oose of flight:
Description of the flight(s): Expected target date(s) for the flight(s): Duration: To: Note: If a series of flights are to be carried out, please provide details separately. Aircraft configuration as relevant for the Permit to fly: a) The above aircraft for which a Permit to Fly is requested is defined in (add reference to aircraft design definition or, if simple, define on the form): b) The aircraft is in the following situation in relation to its maintenance schedule (descibe status): Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their accepetance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorisation or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the Expected target date(s) for the flight(s): Duration: To: Note: If a series of flights are to be carried out, please provide details separately. Aircraft configuration as relevant for the Permit to fly: a) The above aircraft for which a Permit to Fly is requested is defined in (add reference to aircraft design definition or, if simple, define on the form): b) The aircraft is in the following situation in relation to its maintenance schedule (descibe status): Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their accepetance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorisation or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the
From:	Desc	cription of the flight(s):
Note: If a series of flights are to be carried out, please provide details separately. Aircraft configuration as relevant for the Permit to fly: a) The above aircraft for which a Permit to Fly is requested is defined in (add reference to aircraft design definition or, if simple, define on the form): b) The aircraft is in the following situation in relation to its maintenance schedule (descibe status): Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their accpetance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorisation or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the	Ехре	ected target date(s) for the flight(s):
Aircraft configuration as relevant for the Permit to fly: a) The above aircraft for which a Permit to Fly is requested is defined in (add reference to aircraft design definition or, if simple, define on the form): b) The aircraft is in the following situation in relation to its maintenance schedule (descibe status): Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorisation or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the	From	n:
a) The above aircraft for which a Permit to Fly is requested is defined in (add reference to aircraft design definition or, if simple, define on the form):
b) The aircraft is in the following situation in relation to its maintenance schedule (descibe status): Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorisation or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the	a)	The above aircraft for which a Permit to Fly is requested is defined in (add reference to aircraft design definition or, if simple, define
b) The aircraft is in the following situation in relation to its maintenance schedule (descibe status): Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their accpetance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorisation or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the
b) The aircraft is in the following situation in relation to its maintenance schedule (descibe status): Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their accpetance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorisation or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorisation or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the	b)
Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their accpetance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorisation or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the
considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).): Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorisation or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorisation or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the	Approval of flight conditions (Include here reference to EASA approval for flight conditions or confirmation that the application is not considered to be design related, and include reference to the document defining and justifying the proposed flight conditions (which must be submitted with this application).):
relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorisation or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorisation or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorisation or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the Aircraft release to service (approved persons) (Include here the individual person(s) who will issue the Flight Release Certificate in relation to this Permit to Fly and the basis of their acceptance as an authorised person/organisation (if available). If not authorised, the CAA will review the information with a view to issuing an authorisation or may decide to carry out authority inspections leading to the issue of the Permit to Fly)
Name and Signature (authorized signature):	Nos-	on and Signature (authorized signature).
Name and Signature (authorised signature):	INGII	ie and orginature (authorised signature).	