8. PRIVACY NOTICE

The UK CAA's Consumers and Markets Group collects and stores your name, address, email, telephone number and Nationality (not routinely) for the purpose of processing an application for a One-off third country operator notification. We may also share such information on an ad-hoc basis with the UK Department for Transport (DfT) and UK Border Forces for Aviation Security purposes as part of the National Aviation Security Plan.

Why we process your personal information

The processing of your personal information is necessary for the performance of a task we carry out in the public interest or official authority vested in us in accordance with UK.

Who sees your personal information and why

We need to share your personal data with internal CAA staff, the DfT's Aviation Security and the UK Border Force's Carrier Engagement Data Analysis Targeting (CEDAT) who act as joint controllers/processors for information and the purpose of processing the application for a One-off third country operator notification. Such information is shared on an ad-hoc basis as part of the National Aviation Security Plan and in accordance of the MoU with DfT under which the CAA administers at the One-off third country operator notification.

How long we keep your personal information and why

We will delete all personal information associated with an unsuccessful applicant 5 years after a One-off third country operator notification application was made or 10 years after the expiry of a granted One-off third country operator notification. The data is held for enforcement, compliance and intelligence purposes.

Your individual rights

You may submit an information enquiry or make a complaint about how we have processed your personal information by emailing FOI.requests@caa.co.uk. Please be aware that the CAA is subject to the Freedom of Information Act, which means we may need to release information you have supplied to us. However, we would never disclose your personal information without first obtaining your consent.
