

11. Copies of any correspondence sent by GAL to local noise groups, GATCOM or the GACC in relation to these routes.

No correspondence has been sent specifically to these groups, although there have been correspondence between GAL and residents who have been members of the local pressure groups, in the form of their complaints and our responses.