

16. Prior to implementation GAL considered that the changes would have a neutral impact upon CO₂ emissions. Please advise whether the evidence based upon actual traffic since implementation reveals whether the impact has been as expected.

As the RNAV density plots and aircraft flight tracks closely replicate those from the consultation document, it is fair to conclude that CO₂ emissions are as expected.