2 February 2015
EIR Reference: E0002196

Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent request of 19 January 2015 for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

London City Airport - Proposed Additional Flights

Can you please forward details of the Environmental Impact Assessment for the proposed additional flights.

If this information is unavailable, then please confirm why.

Our response:

It is the CAA’s view that the information you have requested is environmental information (as defined) and accordingly the CAA has considered your request in line with the provisions of the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (EIR) rather than the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

The CAA does not hold the information you have requested and therefore Regulation 12(4)(a) of the EIR applies.

The number of flights allowed at a particular airport is a matter for the local planning authority - in this case the London Borough of Newham - rather than the CAA. While London City airport has submitted a planning application for proposed developments at the airport, these proposals do not propose an increase in flight movements above the 120,000 per year that the airport already has permission for. More information can be found on the airport’s website at http://www.londoncityairport.com/aboutandcorporate/page/cadp.
If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

The CAA has a formal internal review process for dealing with appeals or complaints in connection with requests under the Environmental Information Regulations. The key steps in this process are set in the attachment.

Should you remain dissatisfied with the outcome you have a right to appeal against the decision by contacting the Information Commissioner at:-

Information Commissioner’s Office

If you wish to request further information from the CAA, please use the form on the CAA website at http://www.caa.co.uk/application.aspx?catid=286&pagetype=65&appid=24.

Yours sincerely
