Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent request of 6 May 2015 for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

Records of incidents, events, reported, recorded, concerning any unknown objects, unidentified aerial objects, unknown tracks which remain unknown after analysis or investigations for this year.

From any airport, airfield within the United Kingdom. I further request whether there was any involvement with the MOD, MAA (Military Aviation Authority) and the RAF.

Our response:

Having considered your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), we are able to provide the information below.

Incident reports are provided to the CAA under the terms of the Mandatory Occurrence Reporting (MOR) scheme, as described under Article 226 of the Air Navigation Order 2009. Each report made is reviewed and, where appropriate, further investigation carried out and action taken.

We have therefore searched the CAA MOR database for any event reported by an organisation which relates to an unidentified flying object for the period 1 January 2015 to all processed reports as at 14 May 2015. We have found one report, a summary of which is provided in the attachment.

We have not included identifying information in this summary report as this information is exempt from disclosure under Section 44(1)(a) of the FOIA.

Section 44(1)(a) provides that information is exempt information if its disclosure is prohibited by, or under, any enactment. Under Section 23 of the Civil Aviation Act 1982, information which relates to a particular person (which includes a company or organisation) and has been supplied to the CAA pursuant to an Air Navigation Order is prohibited from disclosure (a copy of this exemption can be found below).
For more information about the Mandatory Occurrence Reporting scheme, please refer to CAP382 which can be found at: www.caa.co.uk/cap382

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

The CAA has a formal internal review process for dealing with appeals or complaints in connection with Freedom of Information requests. The key steps in this process are set in the attachment.

Should you remain dissatisfied with the outcome you have a right under Section 50 of the FOIA to appeal against the decision by contacting the Information Commissioner at:-

If you wish to request further information from the CAA, please use the form on the CAA website at http://www.caa.co.uk/application.aspx?catid=286&pagetype=65&appid=24.

Yours sincerely

Mark Stevens
External Response Manager
The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;

The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;

The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;

The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;

Freedom of Information Act: Section 44

(1) Information is exempt information if its disclosure (otherwise than under this Act) by the public authority holding it-

(a) is prohibited by or under any enactment,
(b) is incompatible with any Community obligation, or
(c) would constitute or be punishable as a contempt of court.

(2) The duty to confirm or deny does not arise if the confirmation or denial that would have to be given to comply with section 1(1)(a) would (apart from this Act) fall within any of paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (1).

The crew could only conclude that something had struck the aircraft outside, but a birdstrike at FL200 also seemed unlikely. Didn't know what else to report. No report of anything unusual from passengers or cabin crew. Reported to staff at outstation. Altitude &amp; time of event, aircraft weight, weather info etc. all approximate. Crew were requesting oceanic clearance at the time of the event &amp; whatever was seen was only in the crew's peripheral vision. Reported for completeness.</td>
