Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent request of 28 October 2015 for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

I want to know the time slots allotted for the use of the flight path on the Northumbria Specialist Emergency Care Hospital helipad in Tyne and Wear.

If there are any exemptions for the use of the flight path ie it cannot be used at certain times of day, week or year, then I'd like that information to be included.

Our response:

Having considered your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), we do not hold the information requested.

The opening and closing times for a helipad will depend on the lighting and position of the helipad, and are not set by the CAA, so the hospital itself will be the best source for this information.

The opening hours of a helipad may also be subject to restrictions set by the local planning authority.

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

The CAA has a formal internal review process for dealing with appeals or complaints in connection with Freedom of Information requests. The key steps in this process are set in the attachment.

Should you remain dissatisfied with the outcome you have a right under Section 50 of the FOIA to appeal against the decision by contacting the Information Commissioner at:-

If you wish to request further information from the CAA, please use the form on the CAA website at <http://www.caa.co.uk/application.aspx?catid=286&pagetype=65&appid=24>.

Yours sincerely

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
