Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent request of 13 January 2016, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

'I would like CAA to tell me how many licensed operators of drone machines there are in the UK and provide me with the names and / or business names of the licenced drone operators'

Our response:

Having considered your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), we are able to provide the information below.

A list of CAA-approved commercial operators of Small Unmanned Aircraft (SUA) can be found on our website:

<http://www.caa.co.uk/Commercial-industry/Aircraft/Unmanned-aircraft/SUE-operators-update130116/>

More information about when permission from the CAA is required can be found on our website at www.caa.co.uk/uas/

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
