Dear XXXX

I am writing in respect of your recent request of 26 January 2016, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

1. How many 'near miss' incidents have been reported over UK over the past 12 months?
2. How many 'near miss' have been reported over UK airspace over the past 24 months?
3. How many 'near miss' have been reported over UK airspace in 2014?
4. How many 'near miss' incidents have been reported over UK airspace in 2015?
5. Could you please provide details of all these incidents?

Our response:

Having considered your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), we are able to provide the information below.

The independent UK Airprox Board collects reports of Airprox incidents and produces a regular review of assessed Airprox incidents.

1. There were 216 Airprox incidents reported to the UK Airprox Board over the period 1 January 2015 to 31 December 2015. As of 28 January 2016, there have been 8 Airprox reported this year.
2. There were 440 Airprox incidents reported to the UK Airprox Board over the period 1 January 2014 to 31 December 2015. As of 28 January 2016, there have been 8 Airprox reported this year.
3. There were 224 Airprox incidents reported to the UK Airprox Board in 2014
4. There were 216 Airprox incidents reported to the UK Airprox Board in 2015.
5. Copies of each Airprox incident report can be found on the UK Airprox Board website at www.airproxboard.org.uk under the 'Reports and Analysis' section in the appropriate year. An annual Airprox report for each year (currently up to 2014) can also be found there under the link titled 'Analysis of Airprox in UK Airspace'. The

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
