Dear [Name],

I am writing in respect of your recent request of 4 August 2016, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

1. Are you responsible for any buildings with more than 12kw of air conditioning present?
2. Who is the responsible person for ensuring that your buildings are inspected and reports lodged, please provide the name, address, and telephone number of the responsible person.
3. If your TM44 Air Conditioning Inspection Certificates are in place, what is their expiry date?
4. What was the order value of the works placed with the Company who undertook the work?
5. How many Certificates were produced?
6. Was the TM44 Inspector independent as required under the Regulations?
7. Name the Inspector Organisation.

Our response:

Having considered your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), we are able to provide the information below.

Information Rights Officer
CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
