19 October 2016
Reference: F0002927

Dear

I am writing in respect of your recent request of 22 September 2016, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

‘This email is a Freedom of Information Act request on the Gatwick Route 4 complaint letters received so far from Pilots/Flight operators of Gatwick 4 Flight Path.

I understand that a number of pilots/flight operators have written to Gatwick Airport Ltd/CAA with the concerns regarding flying this route, as currently set. I understand they are struggling to fly this route as directed by the CAA.’

Our response:

Having considered your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), we are unable to provide you with some of the information requested.

The CAA has received a total of 7,115 items of feedback from Gatwick Airport Ltd and 16 items of feedback submitted directly to the CAA since the revised Route 4 was implemented on 26 May 2016.

In both cases, there is not a requirement to capture information relating to the profession of the individual submitting the feedback. However, there is a free text field available, where an individual can insert any comments they may have and which may include details on whether they are a pilot/flight operator. However, in order to identify the number of those who have, we would need to manually review each individual item of feedback. To carry out this activity on 7,131 items of feedback will take a considerable amount of time to collate.

Under section 12(1) of the FOIA, a public authority is not obliged to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of comply with the request would exceed the appropriate limit of £450.00, which equates to a total of 18 hours of work. A copy of Section 12(1) can be found below.
However, in order to assist you, we have been able to carry out a manually review of those items of feedback received directly into the CAA within the cost limit and I can confirm that none of them state that they are a pilot/flight operator.

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

Caroline Chalk
Head of External Information Services
Civil Aviation Authority
Aviation House
Gatwick Airport South
Gatwick
RH6 0YR
caroline.chalk@caa.co.uk

The CAA has a formal internal review process for dealing with appeals or complaints in connection with Freedom of Information requests. The key steps in this process are set in the attachment.

Should you remain dissatisfied with the outcome you have a right under Section 50 of the FOIA to appeal against the decision by contacting the Information Commissioner at:-

Information Commissioner’s Office
FOI/EIR Complaints Resolution
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
SK9 5AF
https://ico.org.uk/concerns/

If you wish to request further information from the CAA, please use the form on the CAA website at http://publicapps.caa.co.uk/modalapplication.aspx?appid=24.

Yours sincerely

Rihanne Stephen
Information Rights Officer
CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;

- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;

- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;

- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;

- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;

- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
12 Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit.

(1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

(2) Subsection (1) does not exempt the public authority from its obligation to comply with paragraph (a) of section 1(1) unless the estimated cost of complying with that paragraph alone would exceed the appropriate limit.

(3) In subsections (1) and (2) “the appropriate limit” means such amount as may be prescribed, and different amounts may be prescribed in relation to different cases.

(4) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, where two or more requests for information are made to a public authority-
   (a) by one person, or
   (b) by different persons who appear to the public authority to be acting in concert or in pursuance of a campaign, the estimated cost of complying with any of the requests is to be taken to be the estimated total cost of complying with all of them.

(5) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for the purposes of this section as to the costs to be estimated and as to the manner in which they are to be estimated.