EIR Reference: E0003877

Dear [REDACTED]

I am writing in respect of your recent request, of 25 August 2018 for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

I would like to know how many airplanes that have passed over my house in the past three years from Gatwick and Heathrow.

Our response:

Having considered your request in line with the provisions of the Environmental Information Regulations 2004, we do not hold the information requested and Regulation 12(4)(a) applies.

While we do have access to radar data from both airports that would enable such a calculation to be made, the EIR does not create an obligation on public authorities to create information that does not already exist. To answer your question would require us to download and analyse a huge amount of data, and we estimate that it would take in the region of 500 hours to download and perform the necessary software calculations.

If you are not satisfied with how we have dealt with your request in the first instance you should approach the CAA in writing at:-

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
