Dear [REDACTED]

I am writing in respect of your recent request of 30 January 2018, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

'I am a fire service enthusiast and I am interested to know what level category of fire cover the following airports have and from what date they have had this level. please also include how long they were on previous level before upgrading.

*Southend
Stansted
Heathrow
Gatwick
Luton
Manchester
Liverpool- John Lennon
Birmingham
Bristol
East Midlands
Leeds Bradford
Newcastle'*

Our response:

Your request has been considered in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA). The information you have requested can be found on the NATS website, within each aerodromes Aeronautical Information Publication (AIP). Please use the following link:

http://www.nats-uk.ead-it.com/public/index.php%3Foption=com\_content&task=blogcategory&id=6&Itemid=13.html

We do not hold a historical timeline of changes to Rescue and Fire Fighting Services categories at aerodromes.

If you wish to request further information from the CAA, please use the form on the CAA website at <http://publicapps.caa.co.uk/modalapplication.aspx?appid=24>.

Yours sincerely

Rihanne Stephen
Information Rights Officer

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
