Dear [REDACTED]

I am writing in respect of your recent request of 14 March 2018, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

- How many UK instrument ratings are current and valid?
- How many UK CPL's are current and valid?
- How many UK PPL's are current and valid?
- How many cadets are currently going through the exam system? (have taken their first ATPL exam but not yet finished their exams, or have not yet been issued a CPL/MEIR?)
- How many professional licences have lapsed or not been renewed in the last 5 years?
- How many professional licences have been transferred to other EASA aviation authorities in the last 5 years?
- How many MEP Class Ratings are renewed each year?
- Is it possible to estimate how many cadets have a full, valid, CPL/MEIR but have not found their first job?

Our response:

Having considered your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), we are able to provide the information below.

CAA INTERNAL REVIEW & COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- The original case to which the appeal or complaint relates is identified and the case file is made available;
- The appeal or complaint is allocated to an Appeal Manager, the appeal is acknowledged and the details of the Appeal Manager are provided to the applicant;
- The Appeal Manager reviews the case to understand the nature of the appeal or complaint, reviews the actions and decisions taken in connection with the original case and takes account of any new information that may have been received. This will typically require contact with those persons involved in the original case and consultation with the CAA Legal Department;
- The Appeal Manager concludes the review and, after consultation with those involved with the case, and with the CAA Legal Department, agrees on the course of action to be taken;
- The Appeal Manager prepares the necessary response and collates any information to be provided to the applicant;
- The response and any necessary information is sent to the applicant, together with information about further rights of appeal to the Information Commissioners Office, including full contact details.
