Dear [Redacted]

Thank you for your request of 3 September 2018, for the release of information held by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA).

Your request:

I am writing to you under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to request the following information from CAA or British Airways:

1) Figures of how many complaints have been made to BA regarding their customer services in India in the last 12 months.

2) Figures of how many refunds for seating charges have been paid by BA in the last 12 months.

3) How many customers have complained regarding a flight delay on IB7521 LGW-LAS 29 MAY 2018 at 11:50.

4) How many refunds/compensation fees have been issued in relation to the above mentioned flight.

Our response:

Having considered your request in line with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), we do not hold the information requested. We do not monitor complaints made to British Airways, and since the introduction of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) in the aviation sector we no longer accept complaints about British Airways, or indeed any airline where an option to use ADR exists.

If you are dissatisfied with a response from British Airways about a delayed flight and you wish to pursue your claim, you should contact the ADR provider designated to handle British Airways complaints:
